MEDIA RELEASE

Alexander Funds Appoints New Investment Committee Member

Melbourne, Australia – Alexander Funds is delighted to announce the appointment of Nick Bishop as an independent member of their Investment Committee (IC).

Nick was the former Head of Australian Fixed Income for Aberdeen Standard Investments, managing up to $14bn in fixed income investments. He also previously held the role of Managing Director, Head of Corporate Credit at Gresham Partners in the Funds Management division.

Nick's appointment reflects growth within the business, as Alexander Funds expands their team. "His experience and knowledge of the industry will be a fabulous asset to our portfolio management team and Investment Committee, in what we expect to be challenging years for markets ahead" said Portfolio Manager and Co-Founder, Chris Black.

Nick will join Chris Black, Adam Scully and independent Chairman Chris Dalton, on the IC. The Committee also includes economists Gerard Minack and Stephen Roberts, as well as the Alexander Funds Investment Team. Nick's inclusion to the IC will bring new perspectives in structured credit and asset-backed securities, specifically adding a holistic portfolio management focus that he has honed over his 25 years in investment markets.

About Alexander Funds

Alexander Funds is an award winning boutique credit funds management company. Founded in 2009, Alexander Funds provides retail and wholesale investors access to opportunities in the fixed income credit markets that are not available through larger institutions. Alexander Funds launched the Alexander Credit Opportunities Fund in late 2009, and leveraging off the success of that product, launched the Alexander Credit Income Fund in December 2018.
